Security guard business - apply for a permit

If you want to guard the lives or property of other people on a professional basis, you need a permit. Guarding requires an active custodial activity (supervision or control). The guarding activity must be aimed at protecting persons from danger to life, limb or freedom or at protecting property against loss, destruction or damage. The care must consist of human activity. Simple security, observation or investigative activities (e.g. detective agencies) or the simple provision of space (e.g. a safe deposit box) do not require a licence.

The concrete activities covered by the term "guarding" are broadly diversified. They include

- the traditional guarding of bicycles, motor vehicles and buildings,
- event services,
- passenger screening,
- the transport of money and valuables..,
- personal security or
- the guarding of industrial and military facilities as well as nuclear power plants.

A guarding contractor may be a natural person or a legal entity. In the case of partnerships (e.g. OHG, KG), each managing partner is a trader. In the case of legal entities (e.g. GmbH, AG), the permit is granted to the legal entity.
