Craftspeople from other member states of the European Union (EU) or another contracting member state of the European Economic Area (EEA) that would like to temporarily perform work in Germany must observe special regulations. Citizens of one of the indicated states that do not have a commercial presence in their home country, may only perform temporary and occasional services in the area of a craft requiring approval, according to attachment A of the Crafts Code (HwO) (see legal basis), under certain conditions.

Prerequisites

You are a citizen of an EU state or another contracting state of the European Economic Area agreement (EEA)
- craft requiring approval, cross-border, temporary

Service providers wishing to work as chimney sweepers, optometrists, hearing aid specialists, orthopaedic shoemakers, orthopaedic technicians or dental technicians should expect that their qualifications will be reviewed.
