Residency permit card for family members of nationals of EU member states, Norway, Iceland or Liechtenstein (EEA states)

The residence card is issued to family members who

- are not nationals of a Member State of the European Union - EU or the European Economic Area - EEA (Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway)

and

- who are cohabiting as a family with a citizen of the EU or the EEA
- who is entitled to free movement.

The residence card is generally issued for 5 years. It certifies the right of entry and residence. Any gainful employment (employment or self-employment) is therefore permitted.

Family members of Germans generally do not receive a residence card in pursuance of the Freizügigkeitsgesetz [Freedom of Movement Act]. They may receive a residence permit in pursuance of the Aufenthaltsgesetz [Residence Act], if they are not themselves EU or EEA citizens (see section 'More information'). Exceptions are only possible if the German has acquired the right to freedom of movement by staying together with the family member in another Member State. A short stay is not sufficient for this.

Prerequisites

- Family member is not an EU or EEA citizen
- Right of freedom of movement applies

Family members only enjoy a right of residence derived from the EU/EEA citizen, if the latter enjoys the right to free movement, e.g. as

- an employee
- a self-employed person
- a non-employed person

- Family relationship with a citizen of the EU or EEA

Family members in pursuance of the Freedom of Movement Act are, in particular,

- spouses/same-sex registered life partners or
- minor, unmarried children or
- parents

Family members of Germans generally do not receive a residence card in pursuance of the Freedom of Movement Act. They may receive a residence permit in pursuance of the Residence Act, if they are not themselves EU or EEA citizens (see section 'More information').

Exceptions are only possible if the German has acquired the right to freedom of movement by staying together with the family member in another Member State.

- Living in a family unit

You can find out more about this topic for example on the website of the Federal Foreign Office: International recognition/Legalisation of documents (see section "More information").
