Residence permit for attending a language course

A residence permit can be issued for a maximum of one year for the purpose of attending a language course, to learn the German language, that is not administered as preparation for a course of study.

The residence permit entitles the holder to work for up to 20 hours per week. It does not permit work on a self-employed basis.

Procedure

1. Carry out the online application “Application for a residence permit for language and study purposes”.

- The application is possible at the earliest 4 months before the end of your current residence title.
- Please have all the necessary documents ready for this in PDF format if possible. However, you can also still photograph and upload the documents during the application process using your smartphone or tablet. The following file formats are accepted: PDF, JPG, JPEG, and PNG. The total size of your files must not exceed 100 MB. A single file must not exceed 7 MB in size.
- Before you can send off the application, you need to pay the service fee.
- At the end you will receive a PDF document to confirm your application. This document will certify that your current residence title (national D visa or residence permit) remains valid in the federal territory beyond the previous validity date. (This does not apply if you hold a Schengen visa (C visa) for a short-term stay).
- The following applies to nationals of the beneficiary countries under Section 41 of the Ordinance Governing Residence (see section “More information”): Did you arrive in Germany fewer than 91 days ago and are now applying for a residence permit for the first time? Then your residence in Germany is considered lawful until a decision is made on your application. This means you can start the language course. However, you are not yet allowed to take up employment.
- Please therefore make sure to save this document and print a copy if possible.
- Note: Do your spouse and child live with you in Berlin and need a residence permit? Then please do not submit a separate application for them. Simply enter your family members in the spaces provided in the online application. The Berlin Immigration Office will contact you regarding residence permits for your family members.

2. Once you have carried out the online application “Application for a residence permit for language and study purposes”, we will check it and then contact you as soon as possible. Where necessary, we will request further documents.

3. If your application is considered to be successful, you will be given an appointment for an in-person interview. Please bring the originals of all the necessary documents with you to this appointment.

Prerequisites

- Intensive language course to learn German

For an intensive language course, it is assumed that its duration is limited from the outset; it usually includes daily lessons (at least 18 lessons per week) and is aimed at acquiring comprehensive German language skills. Evening, weekend and distance learning courses do not meet these requirements.

- Secured livelihood

Sufficient funds to secure your livelihood, including adequate health insurance coverage, are required. Sufficient funds are available if they correspond to the maximum BAföG funding rate.

For a stay for attending a language course, a monthly amount of 1,091.20 euros must be available, i.e. 13,094.40 euros per year (current value for the year 2026).

- Health insurance

You have health insurance in Germany, either through statutory health insurance or a comparable private health insurance scheme.

Travellers' health insurance will also suffice for the duration of the language course.

- Main residence in Berlin

You live in Berlin. A second residence in Berlin is not sufficient.

- Current email address

The Berlin Immigration Office will contact you via your current email address. Please also check your spam folder regularly.

- For the online application: Consent to the electronic payment process

The following methods of payment are available to you:

- Credit card (Visa, Mastercard)
- Paypal

- The following applies to nationals of the beneficiary countries under Section 41 of the Ordinance Governing Residence (see section "Further information"): Did you arrive in the country fewer than 91 days ago and are now applying for a residence permit for the first time?
