Trade register extract - electronic eInformation

In Berlin, you can apply online for electronic information from the Berlin Trade Register about commercial enterprises registered in Berlin. An online service - the eInformation-commercial information - is available to you for this purpose. You can use two different types of information:

1. simple eInformation-commercial information:

In the simple eInformation-commercial information you will only receive the basic data (name, business address and commercial activity) of the Berlin tradespeople. You can search these basic data independently in the eInformation free of charge and without prior registration. (see "Online processing")

2. extended eInformation-commercial information:

Provided that you are regularly in the context of your activity:

- as a fee-paying recipient of information such as lawyers, credit agencies, insurance companies, etc. or
- as recipients of information exempt from charges, such as public authorities, public administrations, social insurance carriers, employment agencies, etc.)

If you need further information on further details (e.g. address of the apartment, name at birth, date of birth, ...) of the trader, you have to register once at the Ordnungsamt Mitte - Registrierungsstelle eAuskunft. In order to receive extended eInformation-commercial information, you must assert a legitimate interest in knowing this data.

The extended eInformation-commercial information is only intended for the above-mentioned group of recipients. Should you require an extended eInformation only one-time or sporadically, please apply for it in writing via the service "Company register extract - written information" (see "Further information").

Note

All offered data are daily updated. However, the Berlin public order offices can only provide the trade data that is also reported by the companies. If individual companies do not report their trade, their data can of course not be included in the eInformation-commercial information. No more information can be provided on companies that have been deregistered for more than one year.

Prerequisites

- for simple eInformation commercial information
No prerequisites necessary.
- for regular extended eInformation commercial information
 - Proof or declaration of authorisation for data retrieval
 - Registration application (one-off)
- for one-off or sporadically extended commercial information
