Residence permit with right of return

Granting of a temporary residence permit with right of return.

This right can be granted if the person spent many years lawfully residing in the federal territory as a minor.

The application for a temporary residence permit must be filed after the person reaches the age of 15 and before he or she reaches the age of 21, as well as within five years of departure from the federal territory.

Simplified requirements shall apply to foreigners who have been forced into marriage by means of violence or threat and have been prevented from returning to Germany.

Prerequisites

- Time of the application

The application for a temporary residence permit must be filed after the person reaches the age of 15 and before he or she reaches the age of 21, as well as within five years of departure.

Derogation from these requirements may be possible to prevent particular hardship.

- Habitual residency for eight years

The foreigner must have lawfully resided in the federal territory for at least eight years prior to departure.

These requirements may be waived if the person has acquired a recognised school-leaving certificate in the federal territory or in cases of particular hardship.

- Six years of school attendance

The foreigner must have attended a school in the federal territory for at least six years prior to departure.

Derogation from this requirement is possible to prevent particular hardship.

- Proof of Income

The person's subsistence must be ensured by their own economic activity or by a maintenance commitment into which a third party has entered for a period of at least five years.

- Simplified requirements for victims of forced marriages.

Simplified requirements apply to victims of forced marriages who were prevented from returning to Germany. It must be possible to present the circumstances of the forced marriage in a credible form.

In these cases, the application must be filed within three months after the coercive situation has ended, and no later than within five years of departure from the federal territory.

It must also appear certain that the person, based on their education and way of life to date, will be able to integrate into the way of life in Germany.

- Main residence in Berlin

- A personal interview is required
