

Residence permit to take part in a student exchange or to attend school

A temporary residence permit may be issued for school attendance or for participation in a pupil exchange.

As a rule, a temporary residence permit for school attendance is possible from the 9th class. For a pupil exchange, residence may also be enabled for lower class levels.

Attending school lessons does not entitle the student to a residence permit for this purpose.

Prerequisites

Student exchange

The temporary student exchange must have been agreed by a school exchange organisation, a non-governmental youth organisation, a German school or other public sector entity in cooperation with a school or public sector entity in the other country.

Privately or commercially organised pupil exchanges are also possible.

Type of school for a stay to attend school

The school must be either

- * a public or state-recognised school with an international orientation or
- * a school which is not or is not predominantly financed from public funds and which prepares the pupils for international qualifications, qualifications of other states or state-recognised qualifications.

For all types of school a student body consisting of pupils of various nationalities must be ensured (exceptions may be considered for so-called embassy schools).

Consent of the parents

Only if the foreign student is not yet of age
