Permanent settlement permit for EU Blue Card holders - application

You have been employed for at least 27 months in a job that meets the requirements for the issue of an EU Blue Card (see "More Information")? And you continue to work in such a job and have basic knowledge of the German language?

In this case, you will be granted a permanent settlement permit upon application if you meet the requirements.

If you have sufficient German language skills, the period is reduced to 21 months of employment.

Procedure

1. Please note the following information before submitting an application:

- Please use the Quick-Checks first (under "Do it online now") to find out quickly and easily whether your application is likely to be successful.
- Check once again whether you meet all the requirements and have the documents and evidence listed in the "Documents required" section.
- The online application is extensive, so it will take some time to complete. However, you can interrupt the application at any time, save it temporarily and continue at a later date.

2. Carry out the online application „Niederlassungserlaubnis für Fachkräfte“

- Please have all the necessary documents ready for this in PDF format if possible. However, you can also still photograph and upload the documents during the application process using your smartphone or tablet. The following file formats are accepted: PDF, JPG, JPEG, and PNG. The total size of your files must not exceed 100 MB. A single file must not exceed 7 MB in size.
- Before you can send off the application, you need to pay the service fee.
- At the end you will receive a PDF document to confirm your application. This document will certify that your current residence title remains valid in the federal territory beyond the previous validity date. (This does not apply if you hold a Schengen visa (C visa) for a short-term stay).
- Please therefore make sure to save this document and print a copy if possible.

3. Once you have carried out the online application, we will check it and then contact you as soon as possible. Where necessary, we will request further documents.

4. If your application is considered to be successful, you will be given an appointment for an in-person interview.

- Because of the high number of applications, however, this can take some time. We ask you for your understanding and patience.
- Please bring all documents in the original specified in the invitation letter.

Prerequisites

- At least 27 months of employment with basic knowledge of the German language

- You have been employed for at least 27 months with an EU Blue Card or another residence title within the meaning of Section 18g of the Residence Act (EU Blue Card, see section "More information").
- Then you must have basic knowledge of the German language. Basic knowledge of the German language corresponds to level A 1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

- At least 21 months of employment with sufficient German language skills

- If you have sufficient German language skills, the required period of employment will be shortened. You then only need to have been employed for at least 21 months in order to meet the requirements for the issue of an EU Blue Card.
- Sufficient German language skills corresponding to level B 1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

- You continue to work in a job that meets the requirements for the issue of an EU Blue Card

- Old-age provision

You must have paid contributions to the statutory pension insurance scheme for the duration of your employment (27 or 21 months). Expenses for an entitlement to comparable benefits from a private insurance company or a pension institution are also accepted.

- Secured livelihood through own income

- Your livelihood and that of your close family members (spouse/life partner and children) is secured. You must not receive or be entitled to any benefits from a job center or social welfare office under the second or twelfth German Social Code (such as the Bürgergeld citizen's allowance or social assistance).
- In the case of a domestic partnership in the context of a marriage or same-sex civil partnership, proof of income can also be provided by the spouse or civil partner.
- With the Quick-Check (under "Do it online now") you can check free of charge whether your income currently covers your living expenses.

- Adequate health insurance

You have health insurance in Germany, either in the statutory health insurance system or a comparable private health insurance.

Foreign health insurance is not sufficient. For more information, please read the leaflet.

- You have no previous convictions or are the subject of an open investigation

- Fines alone can prevent the granting of a permanent settlement permit.
- An application for a permanent settlement permit may not be processed while investigation proceedings are ongoing.

- Basic knowledge of the German legal and social order and living conditions in Germany

Basic knowledge is assumed to be present in particular if

- an integration course or the "Living in Germany" orientation course has been successfully completed,

- an educational or vocational qualification was obtained in Germany or
- you have completed at least one year of schooling or vocational training in Germany.

- Sufficient living space

You have sufficient living space for yourself and the family members living with you at home.

- Main residence in Berlin

You live in Berlin. A second residence in Berlin is not sufficient.
