Residence permit for spouses and children of skilled workers, students, trainees, scientists and teachers

Issuing or extending a residence permit for

- spouses,
- same-sex life partners
- or children

of foreigners who hold a residence permit and are either

- working as a skilled worker (with an academic education or a vocational training)
- starting or completing a degree or have successfully completed it,
- completing a vocational training or an advanced training course,
- staying in Germany in order to obtain recognition of their foreign professional qualification,
- working in the fields of research and teaching as guest academics or as members of academic or technical staff, with an employment contract at a university or public research institution, or
- are working as teachers at a state school, a state-approved private replacement school (Ersatzschule) or a recognized private supplementary school (Ergänzungsschule), or as German language teachers at a university.

Important note:

Does the relative with whom you want to live in Berlin have

- a residence permit for a different reason, or
- a permanent residence title, or
- German citizenship?

Then please choose another service (see section "More information").

Prerequisites

- Main residence in Berlin
A second home in Berlin is not sufficient.
- Joint visit of the family
You can only submit the application to us on site.
Please book an appointment if possible.
- Living in a family unit
You live together in a common housing.

Documents required

- Application form
See the "Forms" section.
Please fill in one form for each person who wishes to apply for a residence permit.

(not necessary for the extension of the residence permit)

- Valid passport
