Recognising foreign professional qualifications - professional recognition

You have acquired your professional qualifications abroad and you want to work in Berlin in your profession? Depending on your profession, you can or will have to recognize your foreign qualification.

Prerequisites

- Professional qualification acquired abroad
- Original documents or a certified copy
- Documents in German language (translation)
If the documents are written in another language, you may also need a translation by a publicly appointed translator. Please contact the responsible office.

Documents required

- The training courses you have completed and the jobs you have done
tabular listing
- Information about your current place of residence
- Proof of identity
- Training certificates acquired abroad
- Evidence of relevant professional experience or other qualifications
If they are required for the determination of equivalence
- Declaration as to whether and to which office you have already applied for a determination of equivalence
- If necessary, notification of determination of equivalence
- If necessary, further documents
Depending on the profession, additional documents may be required. Please contact the responsible office.

Forms

- Applications and forms can be found on the website of the responsible office or you can use the online portal of the Point of Single Contact Berlin
