Insurance intermediary product-accessory - apply for exemption from the obligation to be licensed

If you wish to work as a self-employed product-accessory insurance intermediary, you can be exempted from the obligation to obtain a licence for insurance intermediaries.

As a self-employed insurance intermediary, you generally need a licence (see "More information"). Your local Chamber of Industry and Commerce (Industrie- und Handelskammer - or IHK) is responsible for this. As a so-called product-accessory insurance intermediary, however, you can be exempted from this licensing requirement. For this purpose, you must submit an application to your local Chamber of Industry and Commerce.

You are a product accessory insurance intermediary, if you broker supplementary insurance in addition to your main activity. This means that the risk for which you arrange insurance must arise directly from the goods or services.

Examples of such complementary insurance brokerage are:

- The mediation of motor vehicle insurance in connection with the purchase of a car.
- The brokerage of a life insurance policy as collateral when concluding a loan agreement.
- The mediation of transport insurance in connection with delivery services.

In addition, you must register in the insurance intermediary register (see "More information"). When applying for a permit exemption, you can simultaneously apply for entry in the register of intermediaries.

Special features for foreign nationals

If you are a foreign national with a branch in another member state of the European Union (EU), you must register in that country. You do not need a permit exemption in Germany, nor can you register in the German insurance intermediary register.

The same provisions apply to foreign nationals from non-EU countries as to German nationals. These also apply to EU nationals who register a corresponding trade exclusively in Germany.
