Legal profession - Application for admission as a national of a Member State of the World Trade Organisation

Lawyers from countries outside the EU may apply for admission under § 206 BRAO if they come from a country that is a member of the World Trade Organisation and is listed in the current Implementing Regulation to § 206 BRAO.

The lawyer is entitled to provide legal services under the professional title of his/her country of origin. He/she shall indicate the country of origin when using the professional title. He/she shall be entitled to use the designation "Member of the Bar" at the same time in professional dealings (§ 207(4) BRAO).

Members of the Member States of the World Trade Organisation who exercise a profession corresponding in training and powers to the profession of lawyer under this Act shall be entitled to provide legal services in the field of the law of the State of origin and international law. The professions shall be determined by the Federal Ministry of Justice by means of a statutory order (section 206(1) BRAO).

Nationals of other states who practise a profession which corresponds to the profession of a lawyer under German law in terms of training and powers are entitled to provide legal services in the field of the law of the state of origin if reciprocity with the state of origin is guaranteed. The Federal Ministry of Justice shall, with the consent of the Federal Parliament, determine by ordinance the states to whose nationals this applies and the professions (section 206(2) of the Federal Lawyers' Act).

- Admission to the Bar shall take effect upon receipt (handing over) of the order of admission.
