Register of intermediaries IHK - Registration

The chambers of industry and commerce keep a register of intermediaries.

Holders of one of the following licences must be entered in this register:

- Insurance broker (§ 34 d GewO),
- Insurance consultant (§ 34 d GewO),
- Financial investment brokers (§ 34 f GewO),
- Fee-based financial investment consultant (§ 34 h GewO) and
- Real estate loan broker (§ 34 i GewO)

as soon as you become active in a commercial capacity.

- The register contains the following data:*
- For natural persons: surname, first name, date of birth and name of the company
- For legal entities: Family and first names of the natural persons who are responsible for the intermediary activities within the organ of the company responsible for the management
- Type of permit
- Address of the competent registration authority
- In which EU and EEA Contracting States the applicant will be active
- Addresses of possible branches abroad
- Company address
- Register number
- In the case of tied and product-processor insurance intermediaries: the insurance undertaking assuming liability.

Consumers and insurance companies can thus check who, where and to what extent is authorised as an intermediary.

Attention: If you violate the registration obligation, you can be fined up to 5,000 Euros.

Procedure:

1. You register the entry with the competent licensing authority and receive a notification of the administrative fees incurred.
2. The licensing authority forwards the register application to the intermediary register office at the Chamber of Industry and Commerce.
3. You will receive a fee notice from the Chamber of Industry and Commerce (CCI) keeping the register of intermediaries regarding the administrative fees for the entry in the register.
4. Your entry in the register of intermediaries will be finally confirmed by the Chamber of Industry and Commerce.
