Gastronomic trade - Show continuation after the death of the permit holder

After the death of the permit holder, the permit-requiring gastronomic business may be continued on the basis of the previous gastronomic permit by the spouse, civil partner or the minor heirs during the period of minority. The same applies to executors of estates, guardians of estates or executors of wills up to a period of ten years after the inheritance.

You must notify the competent public order office without delay if you wish to continue the licensed gastronomic business and report the start of the business.

Prerequisites

- Unchanged continuation of the gastronomic business requiring a licence
A change in the type of operation or a change in the premises are not covered by the right to continue.
- Death of the restaurant owner
The gastronomy permit must still be valid.
Continuation of the business is only possible for natural persons, legal persons (GmbH, AG or associations) are excluded.
- Proof of membership of the entitled group of persons
e.g. by presenting a certificate of inheritance, marriage certificate, registered civil partnership or similar.
- Expert knowledge
Proof of instruction on the necessary knowledge of food law.
The certificate must be submitted at the latest within 6 months after the notification of continuation.

Documents required

- Notice on the continuation of the existing gastronomy
Informal notification in text form
- Identity document
Identity card or other official identification document containing a photograph.
Residence permit, if the applicant is not an EU national
- Death certificate
Death certificate of the permit holder
- Proof of being a beneficiary, spouse, partner, minor heir, administrator of the estate, guardian of the estate or executor of the will
Certificate of inheritance; court order as executor; certificate of appointment as guardian of the estate; certificate of executorship
- Training course for the gastronomic business pursuant to § 4 of the Gastronomy Act (Gaststättengesetz - GastG)
(<https://service.berlin.de/dienstleistung/330174/en/>)
Certificate from a Chamber of Industry and Commerce (IHK) on participation in restaurant training or a comparable qualification (confirmation by the IHK).

The certificate must be submitted within 6 months of the notification at the latest.

- Trade registration (Gewerbeanmeldung)

(<https://service.berlin.de/dienstleistung/121921/en/>)

In the event of the continuation of the gastronomic business after the death of the permit holder, a business registration must be filed for the person entitled to continue the business.

Forms

- Informal application in text form

Fees

EUR 16.87 to EUR 187.50 depending on effort
