Money laundering prevention – Notify the removal of a (group) money laundering officer

As an obligated party under the Money Laundering Act (GwG), you may be required to appoint a money laundering officer at management level and a deputy. The competent authority must be notified in advance of the dismissal or removal of the previously appointed Money Laundering Officer and his deputy.

The same also applies to mother companies of groups of companies who wish to remove or discharge their previously appointed group money laundering officers and their deputies.

If you do not completely cease business operations, you must immediately appoint a new (group) money laundering officer/deputy for your company or group of companies upon the dismissal of the previous (group) money laundering officer/deputy (see under "More information").

Procedure:

1. As the obligated party, you must notify the competent authority in advance of the release from duty of the previous (group) money laundering officer and his or her deputy for your (parent) company. You can also complete this notification online and submit it in electronic form.
2. The competent authority will check your details and request any missing evidence. You will receive information on the further procedure and will be informed about the processing status in the electronic mailbox in your BundID account.
3. You will receive a final notification via your electronic mailbox in your BundID account.
