Anerkennung ausländischer Berufsqualifikationen (EU/EWR/Schweiz) als Altenpfleger/in oder Altenpflegefachperson beantragen

Geriatric nurses and geriatric care specialists look after and care for older people in need of assistance. They support them in coping with everyday life. They advise older people, motivate them to engage in meaningful activities and perform nursing and medical tasks.

The profession of geriatric nurse or geriatric care specialist is regulated in Germany. This means that you need a state permit to work as a geriatric nurse or geriatric care specialist in Germany. With this permit, you are allowed to use the professional title of geriatric nurse or geriatric care specialist and work in this profession.

Even if you have a professional qualification from the European Union (EU), the European Economic Area (EEA) or Switzerland, you can still obtain state approval from the relevant office in Germany. To get approval, you need to have your foreign professional qualification recognized.

In the recognition procedure, the competent authority compares your foreign professional qualification with the German professional qualification and checks its equivalence. The equivalence of the professional qualification is an important prerequisite for the granting of the state permit.

In addition to the equivalence of the professional qualification, you must also fulfill further requirements for the granting of the permit. Further requirements are, for example, sufficient knowledge of German and medical fitness.

If your professional qualification does not come from the EU, the EEA or Switzerland, other regulations apply.

You can also apply for the procedure from abroad.

Procedure

1. Application

You apply to the relevant office for a license to use the professional title of geriatric nurse or geriatric care specialist.

2. Assessment of equivalence

The competent authority will then assess whether you meet all the requirements. An important requirement is the equivalence of your professional qualification. The competent authority will compare your foreign professional qualification with the German professional qualification as a geriatric nurse or geriatric nurse specialist. The professional qualification is equivalent if there are no substantial differences between your foreign professional qualification and the German professional qualification.

3. Possible outcomes of the assessment

If your professional qualification is equivalent, your foreign professional qualification will be recognized. The competent authority can confirm the result to you in writing. You still have to fulfill the other requirements. Then you will receive permission to use the professional title of geriatric nurse or specialist in geriatric care.

Are there significant differences between your professional qualification and the German professional qualification? Perhaps you can compensate for the differences through your professional experience, other knowledge or skills (lifelong learning). You must provide proof of your professional experience. Knowledge and skills must be certified by an authority of the state in which you acquired the knowledge or skills.

However, it may be that the substantial differences cannot be compensated for by this knowledge. In this case, your foreign professional qualification will not be recognized. You will then not be allowed to work as a geriatric nurse or geriatric care specialist in Germany.

The competent authority will, however, inform you of the substantial differences and explain why you cannot compensate for them through your professional experience. In most cases, you can take a compensation measure. This will enable you to compensate for the substantial differences.

4. Compensatory measures

There are various compensatory measures:

Adaptation period: The adaptation period lasts a maximum of three years.

Aptitude test: The aptitude test only covers the areas in which substantial differences have been identified. The aptitude test consists of a practical examination combined with an interview.

You can choose between an adaptation period or an aptitude test.

If you successfully complete the compensatory measure and fulfill all further requirements, you will receive permission to use the professional title of geriatric nurse or geriatric nurse specialist.
