Opportunity card (Chancenkarte)

An Opportunity card (Chancenkarte) is a residence permit for the purpose of seeking gainful employment or following measures for the recognition of foreign professional qualifications. It can be issued in particular to foreign jobseekers who have entered the country with a visa issued for this purpose or who are already in Germany as a skilled worker with a residence permit for gainful employment.

The Opportunity card ("Chancenkarte") is usually issued for one year as a so-called "Such-Chancenkarte". If the requirements are met, it is possible to change from the Opportunity card to any other residence permit at any time.

With an Opportunity card for job searches (Such-Chancenkarte), employment of up to 20 hours per week is permitted. Trial employment is also possible for a maximum of two weeks at a time. Trial employment is permitted if it meets one of the following requirements:

- It is qualified employment,
- the trial employment is aimed at training or
- the trial employment is suitable for being taken up as part of a measure for the recognition of foreign professional qualifications in accordance with § 16d of the Residence Act.

Self-employment is not permitted with an Opportunity card for job searches.

Tip:

Would you like to seek gainful employment in Germany after completing your studies, vocational training, professional recognition or research work?

Then it is more advantageous for you to apply for a "Residence permit to seek for a job following a stay in Germany" (see section "More information").

In contrast to the Opportunity card for job searches, this residence permit is generally issued for 18 months and permits any gainful employment (including self-employment) without restriction.

Procedure

1. Carry out the online application.

- Please have all the necessary documents ready for this in PDF format if possible. However, you can also still photograph and upload the documents during the application process using your smartphone or tablet. The following file formats are accepted: PDF, JPG, JPEG, and PNG. The total size of your files must not exceed 100 MB. A single file must be a maximum of 7 MB in size.
- Before you can send off the application, you need to pay the service fee.
- At the end you will receive a PDF document to confirm your application. This document will certify that your current residence title (national D visa, residence permit or EU Blue Card) remains valid in the federal territory beyond the previous validity date. (This does not apply if you hold a Schengen visa (C visa) for a short-term stay or if your current residence title has already expired on the day of application)
- Please therefore make sure to save this document and print a copy if possible.
- Note: Do your spouse and child live with you in Berlin and need a residence permit? Then please do not submit a separate application. Simply enter your family members in the spaces provided in the online application. The Berlin Immigration Office will contact you regarding residence permits for your family members.

2. Once you have carried out the online application, we will check it and then contact you as soon as possible. Where necessary, we will request further documents.

3. If your application is considered to be successful, you will be given an appointment for an in-person interview. Please bring the originals of all the necessary documents with you to this appointment.
